Program Descriptions

Artist of the Month

- A contemporary artist's work will be on display during various months (May, July, August, and October).
- The artist will be entitled to an opening reception.
- Any articles of art sold during the month of exhibit will have an 70% commission to the artist and 30% commission to the museum.
- The artist will be responsible for delivery and pick up of the artwork on display.

Artist-in-Residence

- The program runs for 2 consecutive weeks in June or September.
- Lodging will be provided for the artist.
- The artist will receive a stipend of $500 made in two payments.
- The artist will be entitled to welcoming reception.
- The artist will be required to teach art classes to students of all ages.
- The artist is expected to participate in the Robert Henri Arts Festival, if scheduled, and be available at the museum for the general public to visit.
- For the sake of ease, the museum can handle all sales of artwork because it can do credit card transactions easily and will keep track of sales. At the end of the show the museum will write a check to the artist. We will place a 30% buyers fee on top of the artist's price which is a donation to the museum as per the program's requirements.

Other Artist Opportunities at the Henri

- Robert Henri Arts Festival. Demonstrate and sell your artwork as we celebrate Robert Henri's birthday.
